I. POLICY

The Joplin Police Department is committed to employing the highest quality law-enforcement officers possible to help achieve the department's mission. To that end, the department shall practice a rigorous selection procedure while simultaneously affording all applicants equal consideration regardless of race, national origin, age, veteran status, marital status, or the presence of a non-job related medical condition or disability, handicap, creed, color, sex, or religious affiliation. All job appointments are based on merit and fitness for the position. Where possible, the department provides reasonable accommodation to the known disabilities of qualified people. All personnel who participate in screening and hiring applicants shall be guided by fairness, equal opportunity, and consistency in applying the procedures set forth in this order.

II. PURPOSE

This policy is designed to create the establishment, implementation, and maintenance of a viable and equitable method for employment with the Joplin Police Department. It is developed in accordance with the Municipal Code of the City of Joplin, which outlines the duties and responsibilities of the Personnel Board and Director of Human Resources and is designed to supplement municipal policies and procedures; it is not intended to revise, amend or supersede policies, regulations and procedures pertaining to the general personnel hiring process of the City of Joplin.

III. DEFINITIONS

Disability - A physical or mental impairment that substantially limits one or more of the major life activities.

Good moral character - The attributes of a prospective employee that enhance their value to the department and the goals of community-oriented policing which include honesty, integrity, truthfulness, obedience to the oath of office and the code of ethics, respect for authority, and respect for the rights of others.

Reasonable accommodation - The modification of existing facilities to render them more accessible to and usable by people with disabilities. Also, refers to restructuring the job or modifying work schedules to assist in the assignment of a disabled employee.

Classification – The specific job the applicant has applied for within the organization.

IV. EQUAL OPPORTUNITY EMPLOYER (HR 3.01)

V. JOB ANNOUNCEMENTS (HR 3.02)

Advertising a job opening should be handled in a uniform manner. All announcements and notices should provide the following information on advertisements distributed through electronic, print, or other sources:

- A. The description of the duties, responsibilities, requisite skills, education level, and other minimum qualifications or requirements for the specific job classification. (job description)

B. Indicate “equal opportunity employer” on the advertisement

C. Indicate official application deadlines

VI. APPLICATION (HR 3.03)

To be considered for employment an individual must first make application to the City of Joplin Human Resources Department. The Human Resources Department will process applications for completeness and adherence to minimum qualifications described in classification specifications, and using the guidelines set forth by the Personnel Director. All applications shall be screened and maintained by the Human Resources Department. Applications will not be rejected because of minor omissions or discrepancies that can be corrected prior to a testing or selection process.

VII. SELECTION PROCESS

The hiring selection process involves various elements that will be administered, scored, evaluated, and interpreted in a uniform manner. A copy of the process will be provided to each applicant. The anticipated duration of the selection process will be seventy-four to one hundred twenty-five [74 - 125] days. The following information is indicative of this process:

A. Automatic Disqualifiers:

1. Must be a United States Citizen.
2. Must be a high school graduate or equivalent.
3. Must be at least 20 years of age.

22. Failure to return the background investigation packet by the deadline, it is returned incomplete, or verification of required information cannot be made.
23. Failure to provide supporting documents requested for conducting a background investigation.

B. Discretionary Disqualifiers:

An applicant may be disqualified and ineligible for employment under any of the following conditions:

1. Application was not filled out completely.
2. Plead guilty or nolo contendere to, or has been found guilty of, or has a pending indictment of any misdemeanor charge, ordinance violation or infraction.
3. Abuse or misuse of alcohol or a controlled substance over a significant period without successfully completing an acceptable alcohol or substance abuse treatment program.
4. In arrears on taxes.
5. Demonstrated unwillingness to honor fiscal contracts or just debts.
6. Excessive number of traffic violations or one or more serious traffic violations.
7. Applicant has demonstrated immaturity or poor judgement within the past ten (10) years giving rise to concerns of poor critical thinking skills.

C. Cognitive/Behavioral Testing:

The National Criminal Justice Officer Selection Inventory (NCJOSI) Exam is used to test applicants who are not already licensed law enforcement officers, have not been full-time employed as a law enforcement officer for a period longer than one year, or if it has been longer than one year since becoming licensed by Missouri POST.

1. This exam measures the following components:

Cognitive: Reading Comprehension / Writing / Mathematics

Behavioral Orientation: Stress Tolerance / Team Orientation / Ethics / Integrity / Assertiveness / Interpersonal Abilities

2. The NCJOSI is delivered in either a written or electronic format.
3. The NCJOSI is scored automatically in electronic format. Written tests will be forwarded by Human Resources to I/O Solutions for scoring. The overall acceptable score is 70% or higher.

D. Physical Ability Testing:

This test is used to test applicant's relevant physical ability to complete physical tasks commonly associated with law enforcement physical activity. This test is used for applicants who are not already licensed law enforcement officers, have not been full-time employed as a law enforcement officer for a period longer than one year, or it has been longer than one year since becoming licensed by Missouri POST.

1. Scoring on this test is pass/fail. Failure to complete any required task will eliminate the applicant from the selection process.
2. Each applicant will sign a waiver relieving the City of Joplin from liability.

E. Background Investigation

1. A complete, thorough and confidential background investigation will be conducted upon every eligible candidate. The investigation shall include the applicant's education, character, reputation, financial arrearage, driving record, criminal record, military record, employment record, residency, qualifications, verification of at least three personal references, and other pertinent information.
2. The following is a list of information required from the applicant for the investigation to occur:
 - a. Background Investigation Packet Questionnaire
 - b. Copy of Official Birth Certificate
 - c. Copy of Valid Driver's License (front & back)
 - d. Copy of High School Diploma or GED Certificate
 - e. Sealed Official Copy of High School and/or College Transcripts
 - f. Copy of U.S. Military Standard Form 180 (SF-180) if the applicant currently serves or has served military duty.
 - g. Copy of U.S. Military Discharge Form (DD-214), Long Form if the applicant has served military duty.
 - h. Copy of Missouri Peace Officer Standards and Training License (POST)

- i. Copies of any licenses, certifications, or training that could help support experience claims.
3. After the background investigation has concluded the background investigator will complete an investigation summary report of qualification findings as well as provide a recommendation to the Chief of Police as to whether the applicant should be considered for further screening in the selection process. These items will become part of the background investigation packet.

F. Command Staff Interview

This is a second panel interview in the selection process. The panel will be made up of the Chief of Police, Assistant Chief of Police, and Bureau Commanders. The Chief of Police will designate replacement interviewers in the absence of a Command Staff member as needed. This interview uses a mix of behavioral and situational questions and allows the Chief of Police and other command staff members to evaluate and determine if the applicant is properly prepared and a suitable fit for the Joplin Police Department.

G. Conditional Offer

The Chief of Police, at any stage of the selection process, may advise Human Resources to extend a conditional offer of employment to an applicant who has met qualifications to be eligible for hire and is suitable to become a police officer for the City of Joplin. The conditions of the offer are that the applicant will be hired if there are no disqualifying criteria identified in the remaining steps of the selection process.

H. Polygraph Examination (9-07)

A polygraph examination shall be conducted on the applicant by a certified polygraph technician trained to conduct such examinations and approved by the City of Joplin to administer the examination. The polygraph is considered an investigative aid and shall not be used as the only determinate in the selection process.

1. After the polygraph examination has concluded the polygraphist shall include the results of the polygraph and any admissions made by the applicant as part of the background investigation packet. This information shall be treated as confidential.

I. Psychological Examination

A psychological examination will be conducted using valid, useful, and nondiscriminatory procedures. The examination is designed to assess a applicant's work habits and preferences and overall compatibility for the position. Only qualified professionals are used to administer the examination and evaluate the results. The records of the results of psychological examinations shall remain in the custody of Human Resources at all times, except in rare and unusual circumstances (e.g., subpoenaed for court). All information or material received from the psychological exam shall be kept secure during and after the selection process.

J. Medical / Drug Screening

1. A medical examination shall be conducted by a licensed physician approved by the City of Joplin to perform such examinations.
2. Drug screening (urinalysis) shall be conducted at a medical facility approved by the City of Joplin to conduct such tests.

K. Official Offer

Once all applicable levels of the selection process have been completed, the Chief of Police or designee will advise Human Resources to provide the applicant with an official offer and coordinate an appropriate starting date for their new employment with the City of Joplin.

VIII. ADMINISTRATION

A. Selection Process

1. The Training Division Sergeant shall act as the Police Department's liaison with Human Resources and shall be responsible for the administrative functions of the selection process.
2. The Training Division Sergeant will maintain contact with applicants from initial application to final employment disposition.

B. Background Investigation

1. The Police Department utilizes Guardian, an on-line background investigation platform, which archives all applicant backgrounds for police officers. Persons who may possess or access a Background Investigation:
 - a. Training Division Sergeant.
 - b. Background Investigator (specifically files pertaining directly to the applicant the officer is actively investigating).
 - c. Polygraph Examiner (specifically for preparing questions for the respective candidate's polygraph examination).
 - d. Command Staff.
 - e. Chief of Police.
2. After the selection process is complete, the applicant background investigation will be archived in the Guardian on-line platform. Except as specifically noted in this section, no person shall have access to the information contained in this packet at any time without written permission from the Chief of Police. If a release of information is authorized the release shall be made in the form of a photocopy of the desired information. The original Joplin Police Background Investigation Packet shall remain archived in the Guardian on-line platform.
3. Disposal of selection process materials not stored in Guardian will be done by burning or shredding to prevent disclosure of information.
4. All background investigators will attend documented training in conducting a background investigation prior to being assigned to this duty.
5. Records of applicants that are not hired are subject to the Human Resources record retention policy.
6. Records of applicants that are hired are kept on file indefinitely while the person is employed. The records are subject to the Human Resources record retention policy after the departure of the employee.

C. Lateral Entry

Applicants who have been full-time employed as a law enforcement officer or who have been licensed by Missouri POST within one-year of application are not required to pass the cognitive/behavioral testing or the physical ability testing phases of the selection process.

D. Retesting

1. Applicants who fail any portion of the selection process are disqualified. The disqualified candidate will be sent a letter from the Human Resources Department within 30 days of the decision. This letter will inform the candidate that they are no longer being considered for hire and will give information as to the next time they are eligible to re-test.
2. Candidates who successfully complete all phases of the hiring process but are not hired, will be placed on an eligibility list that will typically be valid for one year from the date of testing.

IX. COMPLIANCE

Violations of this policy, or portions thereof, may result in disciplinary action as described in the City of Joplin's Personnel Rules and Regulations or the Joplin Police Department's Rules and Regulations and General Orders. Members of the Joplin Police Department, assigned to or assisting other agencies shall comply with this policy.

X. APPLICATION

This document constitutes department policy, is for internal use only, and does not enlarge an employee's civil or criminal liability in any way. It shall not be construed as the creation of a higher legal standard of safety or care in an evidentiary sense, with respect to third party claims insofar as the employee's legal duty as imposed by law. Violations of this policy, if proven, can only form a basis of a complaint by this department, and then only in a non-judicial administrative setting.
