REPORTS AND COMMUNICATIONS

News from the Public Information Office

The City is holding two Public Meetings on Thursday, January 27 to discuss the public transit service including MAPS and the Sunshine Lamp Trolley. Officials are developing a contingency plan should the need arise to reduce transit services, due to the City not having staff to maintain current operations of the public transportation system.

The Public Meetings will be held next Thursday, January 27. The meeting times are from 1:30 to 3 p.m. and from 5:30 to 7 p.m. Both Meetings will be held here in the Council Chambers of City Hall. Citizens can choose to attend either meeting to participate in the discussions and provide their comments.

Joplin Parks and Recreation invites all dads and their daughters to their annual Daddy Daughter Date Night event. It is being held on February 18 and 19. Dads are welcome to treat their favorite gal or gals to an evening of music, dancing, games, buffet dinner, and prizes. A complimentary photograph is included in the ticket price to commemorate the evening. Tickets are $40/couple and $20 for an additional daughter.

This year the Parks and Rec Department is offering an Early Bird Special on Soccer Registration. Parents can save $5 on the recreational league when they register their player before February 1st. The league is open to players aged 5 - 14 years. Registration is normally $40/player with each receiving a jersey, shorts and socks.

Practices begin the week of March 14th and are determined by each coach. Games will be on Monday, Tuesday, or Thursday nights, depending on child's age, beginning the week of March 28th.
