

Officer Bert Brannon had arrested seven vagrants in the Kansas City bottoms in the early morning hours of April 23, 1901. As the group was being marched to the station, a number of them turned on the arresting officers at 1st and Main. Officer Brannon, who was among those shot, died the following day. The vagrants were never identified or captured.