

Officer James Sweeney had arrested seven vagrants in the Kansas City bottoms in the early morning hours of April 23, 1901. As the group was being marched to the station, a number of them turned on the arresting officers and shot Sweeney with his own gun. The shooting occurred at 1st and Main. Officer Sweeney died hours after the shooting. The vagrants were never identified or captured.