SUBJECT: Rules of Conduct	REVIEW DATE: Annually - February
EFFECTIVE DATE: October 9th, 2015	ACTION DATE:
AMENDS/SUPERSEDES: 2-05 May 27th, 2015	AMEND DATE: March 3, 2020
ACCREDITATION INDEX: 1.1.2, 22.2.7a, b, 26.1.1	APPROVED:  Chief of Police

I. POLICY

The Joplin Police Department and the public expect all personnel to maintain high standards of appearance and conduct. Law-enforcement officers wield considerable power over citizens, power that is carefully circumscribed by state and federal law, and the Constitution and Bill of Rights. The police department's powers to arrest, seize property, and interfere, at times, with the lives of citizens constitute a public trust. The Joplin Police Department can help ensure that they regard this trust as vital by exemplary performance. Performance is tied to the department's commitment to community-oriented policing values as reflected in our mission. The mission of the department is to work with all citizens to preserve life, maintain human rights, protect property, and promote individual responsibility and community commitment.

II. PURPOSE

To define departmental expectations for on- and off-duty personal behavior.

III. DEFINITIONS

A. Moral turpitude

An intentional act or behavior displayed in words or actions which violates public morals or the common sense of the community involving but not limited to intent to defraud, intentional dishonesty for personal gain, lying, perjury, cheating, bribery, unlawful possession of controlled substances, sexual harassment, unlawful sexual conduct, or excessive use of force.

B. Good moral character

The attributes of a prospective employee that enhance his or her value to the department and to public service which include honesty, integrity, truthfulness, obedience to the oath of office and the code of ethics, respect for authority, and respect for the rights of others.

IV. CODE OF ETHICS

All police department employees shall abide by the Law Enforcement Code of Ethics: (1.1.2)

As a law enforcement officer, my fundamental duty is to serve the community; to safeguard lives and property, to protect the innocent against deception, the weak against oppression or intimidation, and the peaceful against violence or disorder; and to respect the constitutional rights of all to liberty, equality, and justice.

I will keep my private life unsullied as an example to all and will behave in a manner that does not bring discredit to my agency or me. I will maintain courageous calm in the face of danger, scorn or ridicule; develop self-restraint; and be constantly mindful of the welfare of others. Honest in thought and deed in both my personal and official life, I will be exemplary in obeying the law and the regulations of my department. Whatever I see or hear of a confidential nature or that is confided to me in my official capacity will be kept ever secret unless revelation is necessary in the performance of my duty.

I will never act officiously or permit personal feelings, prejudices, political beliefs, aspirations, animosities, or friendships to influence my decisions. With no compromise for crime and with relentless prosecution of criminals, I will enforce the law courteously and appropriately without fear or favor, malice, or ill will, never employing unnecessary force or violence and never accepting gratuities.

I recognize the badge of my office as a symbol of public faith, and I accept it as a public trust to be held so long as I am true to the ethics of police service. I will never engage in acts of corruption or bribery, nor will I condone such acts by other law enforcement officers. I will cooperate with all legally authorized agencies and their representatives in the pursuit of justice.

I know that I alone am responsible for my own standard of professional performance and will take every reasonable opportunity to enhance and improve my level of knowledge and competence.

I will constantly strive to achieve these objectives and ideals, dedicating myself before God to my chosen profession . . . law enforcement.

Violations of this policy, if proven, can only form a basis of a complaint by this department, and then only in a non-judicial administrative setting.
